

God has a destiny for you. Your life has purpose. As you have been faithful to your calling, consider where God is leading you to overflow. Don't be discouraged by obstacles and difficulties, but instead overflow with hope because nothing will stop God's plans for our lives.

> 1836. 1919

What dreams has God put in your heart?

How will you be involved in taking God's kingdom life of love in action from every community, city, and nation where you live to the next?

